

Stereo Earphones

Model
176187

Personal listening with fewer distractions: Quality portable stereo earphones deliver exceptional audio.

The MANHATTAN® Stereo Earphones deliver full-range sound from an in-the-ear design that helps to seal in the sound of favorite music, games or movies. Soft, foam pads offer a snug but comfortable fit to help isolate unpleasant noise.

Designed to Complement Portable Media Players

Thanks to their compact size, they travel almost anywhere in a briefcase, backpack or pocket. A durable Y-cable features a 3.5 mm gold plug with strain relief for improved connectivity and reliable use with notebook computers, portable digital music players and other media devices. The MANHATTAN Stereo Earphones make an ideal replacement or upgrade from OEM earphones for better sound reception.

Lifetime Warranty

Strict manufacturing standards ensure the highest quality in all MANHATTAN products. All items carry a full Lifetime Warranty — the strongest quality commitment anyone can make.
